

Quality Assurance Inspections are performed during the installation of building envelope systems including roofing, waterproofing and glazing to confirm proper installation, conformance with industry standards and compliance with project specifications. Even with the best designs, the ultimate success of an installation relies on proper installation. Improper installation is the most common pitfall in the process. GCI’s experienced inspectors have demonstrated time and time again that their specialized knowledge brings great value to the construction team in producing a quality building envelope.

